Series Rules

- All wrestlers wrestling in Future Finalist Series MUST participate in the Future Finalist Tournament and IKWF Regionals (state series) and (1) of the following the USA Winter Nationals and/or Jon Davis Kids Open. You can wrestle in BOTH but may only claim points from (1) and NOT both of the optional events.
- Points earned at the USA Winter Nationals or Jon Davis Kids Open will be used to seed TOP 4 wrestlers in the Future Finalist tournament. Wrestlers/Coaches/Parents are responsible for claiming seeding points at the time of registration for the Future Finalist tournament. The tournament director has final decision in seeding. Note: we will be awarding your place points from these events (Winter Nats/Kids Open) based upon your actual place in the tournament, we will not be “bumping up” wrestlers past ineligible (i.e. non-IKWF wrestlers’ ineligible to participate in the series) like we did in past years. For example you finished 3rd at Winter Nats and the 2nd place finisher was from Indiana. Since the Indiana wrestler was not eligible for the Futures series we bumped up or awarded the 3rd place finisher the 2nd place points. We will NOT be doing that any longer.
- Those place points at Winter Nationals or the Kids Open, along with points earned from the Future Finalist tournament and Regionals will be totaled and the TOP (3) in each division Tot (6 & under), Bantam (7 & 8), Intermediate (9 & 10) will be awarded the Future Finalists belt (award) for a total of (9) belts awarded.
- For 8 year olds their points will apply to whatever division in the series that they decide to wrestle in the Future Finalist tournament. This decision will not force an 8 year old to wrestle in that same division at Regionals. The same applies for 6 year olds that wrestle up in Bantam.
- The Future Finalist series will not affect or modify the manner in which the IKWF State series is run. All Tot/Bantam divisions at Regionals will be a 4-man block weight bracket and no seeding will take place. The Intermediate division will be bracketed according to the IKWF State weights stated in the by-laws and seeding of these wrestlers will occur at the Regional seeding meeting or as determined by the authority of the respective Sectional Director.
